On September 16, 2017, the Delaware Fatherhood & Family Coalition (DFFC), a component of the Promoting Safe and Stable Families Program, in partnership with First State Community Action Agency, Inc. and Connections, CSP, Jewish Family Services of Delaware and United Health Care, Inc., will hold its 6th Delaware Devoted Dads Summit: "Man in the Mirror." The Summit will take place at the Dover Downs Convention Center in Dover, Delaware from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The Summit will offer workshops addressing focus on the family, father engagement and the impact of healthy family relationships on the well-being of the child.

The Delaware Fatherhood and Family Coalition (DFFC) is an extension of the Division of Prevention and Behavioral Health Services Promoting Safe and Stable Families Program's responsible Fatherhood Initiative. The Delaware Fatherhood and Family Coalition is made up of fathers, mothers, families, community leaders, Faith-based, community and grass root organizations and State representation. As a united change agent, the DFFC is committed to building a community coalition that champions father involvement, which in turn provides positive outcomes for Delaware children and their respective communities.

The DFFC supports the involvement of residential and non-residential fathers in the lives of their children, reducing stressors of single parent, builds upon healthy co-parent relationships, and decreasing the barriers that may challenge these efforts.

Registration for the 2017 Delaware Devoted Dads Summit is free to all. SIGN-UP TODAY
